Welcome Message

Empowering Urologists to Advocate for their Patients, Practice and Profession

September 19, 2014

Welcome!

After nearly a year of planning and preparation, we are thrilled to welcome you to the 7th Annual AACU State Society Network Advocacy Conference.

The informative agenda addresses urology advocacy, legislative updates and current socioeconomic issues sure to benefit your practice. The sessions will not only provide information, but also serve as tools to use when you return home. We hope you will share and leverage the knowledge and resources obtained at this conference with colleagues concerned about the changes happening in health care and the socioeconomic issues they are facing.

We are honored to have you here and thank the AACU’s Corporate Members and healthcare industry supporters for their assistance. Speakers and panel participants similarly deserve our recognition and appreciation. For every presentation, we all know that hours of preparation are necessary. Finally, we are grateful for the support of the AACU Board of Directors, especially that of President Richard S. Pelman, MD, and the extraordinary effort of our staff led by Executive Director, Wendy Weiser.

Thank you for taking time away from your patients, friends and families to attend this event. We understand this sacrifice and have done everything possible to make the 7th Annual AACU State Society Network Advocacy Conference a valuable investment of your time.

Sincerely,

Martin K. Dineen, MD, FACS
